LAW WILL DOUBTLESS BE ENFORCED HEREAFTER

Distributing of Samples of Medicine Tabooed Through Act

CHILDREN SECURE STUFF

When Advertising Matter is Thrown on Porches Youngsters Get It First

It is quite probable that the borough authorities will be called upon to enforce the act passed by the Legislature prohibiting the throwing of medicine or candy samples on porches and in yards. In addition to being a nuisance this practice has become so highly dangerous that the Legislature passed an act making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $100 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

On the residence streets of Charleroi many of the houses have no front yards and those who have young children usually fence them in on the porches and verandas during the pleasant weather. Along comes an advertising distributor and tosses on the porches promiscuously samples of liver pills, headache powders, packages of herb tea, cathartic candies and other nostrums; which the youngsters usually get first and with a fair chance for business for the doctors and undertakers. A recent case was the child of Wm. Gault, who was discovered eating some green stuff it had gotten from a sample package of medicine. Drastic measures relieved the child, and Mr. Gault filed a complaint with council, and it is likely the police will be notified to enforce the law prohibiting this dangerous practice.

The law in question prohibits "the depositing, casting, throwing or placing of packages, parcels or sample of medicine or candies in the houses, buildings, porches, verandas, or on the lawns, lands, streets or public highways within this Commonwealth." The penalties as stated are provided and the act was signed by the Governor May 8, 1907.

CONSTRUCTION WORK PROGRESSING WELL

New Kind of Chemical Plant Being Erected at Newell.

Seven buildings are now under course of construction at Newell, now, and plans are being prepared for the eighth of the General Chemical company which is locating there. The work is progressing rapidly the Nicola Construction company of Pittsburgh having the contract.

The structures are being so arranged, that for the first time in the history of the chemical business, by starting the raw materials in one end of the group of structures the finished product will come out at the other. Every form of chemical will be made by the company. It is said that the company expects to erect other structures at Newell.

Saturday evening on Fifth, Sixth or Seventh street a package containing 10 pounds of gluten flour. Finder will be rewarded if returned to Mail Office.

Observing Recently Declared Holiday

Monessen People Holding Celebration Today—Parade and Athletic Events.

Monessen is today celebrating Columbus Day in an appropriate manner, athletic events being a feature. A parade will be held by the Italian residents of the town, to begin at 3 o'clock. The line of march was to be over the principal streets. At 2 o'clock the sporting events began, and some good races are being run. There are a number of entries for the different events. The five mile run will probably prove the most interesting. In it are entered some fast runners, among them being Frank Wiley California.

PARTY GOES FROM HERE

Rev. Boblitt Heads Delegation to Convention this Morning.

Headed by Rev. H. C. Boblitt, pastor of the First Christian church here, a big delegation of enthusiastic Sunday school, Bible class and church workers went to Pittsburgh this morning to attend the Centennial exercises of the Christian denomination which formally opened there last night. For the next ten days this convention will be the biggest and most important religious event in the country as well as in local circles, where it naturally assumes the largest dimensions.

More than fifty thousand ministers, educators and laymen are in attendance and every train that arrives in Pittsburgh is bringing more. Hotels and boarding houses are crowded, and the entertainment committee is taxed to its utmost efforts to provide entertainment. The evening sessions last night at which the visitors were formally welcomed, were enthusiastic, which indicated the spirit that will prevail at all the sessions.

Today a great meeting of the Brotherhood of the church began at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Lums Park. Addresses will be delivered and the Third Regiment Band of Kansas City will give a concert in the evening. The evening session will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

R. A. Long will preside at the afternoon session and addresses will be delivered by P. C. Macfarlane, general secretary; Arthur Holmes of the University of Pennsylvania, on "The Business Man's Duty to the Church;" Thomas W. Grafton, Anderson, Ind., "The Man in the Boy;"

Had a Packed House.

The opening bill at the Monessen Opera house Saturday night by the Paul Burns Stock company was witnessed by a crowded house. A musical comedy, "Who's Who" was presented.

OFFICER SENT TO CLEVELAND TO BRING HOME RUNAWAY DONORA BOY

Was Picked Up on Streets by Juvenile Court Officials and Held Until Father Was Notified

SAID HE WENT AWAY SO HE COULD HAVE SOME FUN

Officer George Ekarger, of Donora will bring home Willie Elliott, age 10 years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Elliott of that place, from Cleveland, Ohio, this evening if he does not have some misfortune en route. The officer left yesterday for Cleveland, where the boy, who disappeared from home on Sunday a week ago, was being held.

The lad was found on the streets of

Cleveland, by officers of the Juvenile court, and despite his protests was taken to the boys' detention rooms. There he finally admitted that he was from Donora, and told his name. How he had got to Cleveland was a mystery, but he said that he came there to "have some fun."

The Elliott family moved from Cleveland to Donora about four weeks ago, the father having a responsible position in the Donora steel works.

MILKMEN WILL MEET COUNCIL

Come Under Instructions from Association that Will Prevent Action.

A committee consisting of Floyd Bonnell, William Sphar, N. W. Carson and Van Robinson, of the Fallowfield Milkmen's Association will be at the meeting of council tonight, at the request of council to talk over the milk ordinance, recently passed by the borough. Council desires to enforce, but the committee will come with instructions from the association not to do anything beyond notify the council that they cannot comply with present conditions with the terms of the ordinance.

OBSERVANCE OF FRUIT DAY HERE WEDNESDAY

Ladies' Auxiliary also Prepare to Receive Donations on Saturday.

"Fruit Day," being arranged by the Charleroi Ladies Auxiliary of the Monessen-Charleroi hospital, promises to fully reach the expectations of those in charge. The affair is a sort of donation for Wednesday of this week. Fruit and vegetables may be left at three places in Charleroi. The Charleroi City Grocery, J. E. Masters and the Charleroi Tea Store, at which places committees will be present to receive the material.

On Saturday a committee will be at the old Mirror office where any one may leave fruit or vegetables for the hospital.

Night School Opens.

The Y. M. C. A. night school at Monongahela opened last night. Classes in arithmetic, penmanship, English for foreign speaking men and boys, mining, mechanical drawings, bookkeeping and engineering are taught and the attendance and interest is most encouraging.

Ten per cent reduction on all wool underwear, sale now on at Murdock and McCarty's.

ARE HIGH SCHOOL BOYS BOLSTEROUS?

Some Citizens Living Near High School Building so Declare.

Complaints have been entered from the hill district in the vicinity of the High School building of alleged rudeness of high school boys going to and from school. It is alleged that the conduct of some of them is ungenteel and exceedingly boisterous. It also said that they persistently harassed the younger children from the walks, not altogether intentionally, but thoughtlessly. Some of the citizens of that neighborhood have expressed their opinion, and have said that they will make formal complaints to the proper authorities.

The above complaint, it might be added, is similar to ones made nearly every year. At times it has been necessary to threaten suspension, and in extreme cases carry out these threats. The police are occasionally drawn into the affair.

CUTTING REFRAY MAY RESULT SERIOUSLY

One Man in Hospital and Another is Sent up for Trial.

As a result of a cutting affray Saturday from the result of which Richard Pender of Monessen is in the Monessen-Charleroi hospital, John Craig was this morning taken to jail at Greensburg, to await a hearing on the charge of felonious assault. A hearing was held last evening at Monessen, where the affair occurred and this morning Craig was identified by Pender as his assailant. It appears that for three weeks there has been bad blood between the two. Pender's most severe wound consists of a cut six inches in length, which was made at one knife thrust, it is alleged, by Craig.

ALIENS NOT AWARE THAT OCCUPATION TAXES ARE NOW LAWFULLY ASSESSED

When Notified to That Effect They are Much Surprised, and Many Do Not Pay Amounts Due

On or near September 11 of this year Tax Collector B. L. Parsons sent notices to 40 delinquent taxpayers to the effect that occupation taxes still unpaid for the year 1907 must be settled inside of 30 days or costs would be imposed according to law. A reading notice was also run in the Mail calling attention to the matter.

Since that time 130 persons have paid their amounts and most of them cheerfully, while 30 or more have proven that they were not entitled to pay them but that year in neglect of law-makers or of being misled by some one who had spoken to them.

where are the other two-thirds or 300 persons who received these notices?

It is a surprise to many aliens that a law has been in operation for two years to collect an occupation tax from all men pursuing an occupation and residing in the several towns and cities of the State of Pennsylvania, and that the assessors are instructed to assess all male citizens over the age of 21 for an occupation tax, "whether they are naturalized citizens or not. Some time will be required to educate such to the necessity of paying this tax. Few of them would refuse to pay the small amount, if all are made aware of it."

PROPERTYHOLDERSGRANTED APPEAL FROM APPRAISMENT

Executive Committee Talks Over Matters

Meets at Washington Monday Afternoon to Discuss Political Situation.

Chairman R. G. Miller called a meeting of the Republican executive committee together at Washington yesterday in order to take note of the progress of the campaign. The headquarters were also formally opened in the evening and were visited by most of the county candidates and others prominent in the party, including Congressman J. K. Tener. Everything was found to be in good shape, and while a full vote may not be polled indications from every part of the county are that the Republican majority will be maintained.

MINISTERS APPOINTED

Methodist Conference Ends Yesterday and Changes are Made Known.

The Methodist Episcopal conference at Bellevue ended yesterday, with appointment of ministers for the coming year. Rev. W. M. Deakins, pastor of the Charleroi church, who has been here for two years, was returned. Other appointments in the district were as follows:

Monessen—C. E. Brenneman. Allenport—H. E. Lewis. Beallsville—O. B. Patterson. Bentleyville—J. S. Allison, Jr. California—G. H. Flinn. Claysville—T. M. Dunkle. Coal Centre—W. J. Law. Donora—S. G. Noble. Fredericktown—H. L. Humbert. Greensboro—C. J. Feitt. Roscoe—James Fernear, supply. Marianna—J. C. McMinn. Monongahela—J. F. Murray. Monongahela Mission—J. C. McMinn and J. C. High. Brownsville—C. M. Kelly. Belle Vernon—J. D. W. Hazleton. J. C. Burnworth was assigned to Allison Park; William Medley to McCandless Avenue, Pittsburgh, and H. J. Giles to Friendship Park. These three were former Charleroi pastors.

Birthday Party.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Connelly, last evening in honor of their daughter Miss Stella it being in the form of a birthday surprise. About 25 guests were present, and the evening was spent enjoyably with music and games. Several were present from Belle Vernon and Monessen.

Beaten by the Woman.

A Bible class composed of 72 men was organized at the First Christian church at Monessen Sunday. After the men had effected their organization the women of the church also organized a Bible class with 90 names.

Ten per cent off on all stiff and soft hats, a big line to choose from. Murdock and McCarty.

Matter Presented in Open Court at Pittsburg on Last Saturday.

HEARING IN NOVEMBER

Decree Returned Within Short Time After Matter is Heard by Judge Orr.

The appeal from the amount assessed by the board of viewers in a commendation proceedings for the Charleroi public building site, has been allowed, and it is likely the hearing will come about the last of November. The appeal was presented by Attorney D. M. McCloskey on behalf of the owners of the property condemned on Fallowfield avenue and Seventh street, in open court to Judge Orr. It was heard and within a remarkable short time was granted, and a decree returned. The decree returned was:

"Now, October 9, 1909, the within appeal presented in open court and upon motion, the same is allowed and it is ordered that the pleadings be so framed that the said Florentine Malacord shall be the plaintiff and the United States of America the defendant, and the following issue of facts tried:

"1. Whether or not Florentine Malacord is the legal owner of the premises alleged or claims to be so owned.

"2. The quantity of said premises.

"3. The damages, if any, which the said Florentine Malacord has or shall suffer and sustain."

Robson.

Matthew Robson, 60 years old who has been making his home in Charleroi for sometime with his daughter, Mrs. Edward Elder, died at the Mercy hospital, Pittsburg, on Friday evening of tuberculosis. The funeral was held Monday from Mr. Robson's home in Tarentum. Two daughters, Mrs. Elder and Mrs. Fern Loubets of Charleroi and the wife, two daughters and ones on in Tarentum survive.

NO ENCOURAGEMENT FOR BETTER STAGE

Rainfall too Slight to Cause a Sufficient Rise in Rivers.

Reports of the rain fall along the valley do not afford encouragement for any beneficial changes in the stages in the Monongahela and Ohio rivers. One inch of rainfall was reported from some stations, but the ground absorbed this amount and a very slight quantity of the water ran off into the streams. The storm which prevailed in this vicinity yesterday seemed to pass on eastward and again disappointed the anxious rivermen, who hoped for a better coal boating stage.

It was expected that the rain would continue at headwaters enough to maintain a fair stage in the Monongahela river but not materially increase the stage in the Ohio.

The freight trade along the rivers continues heavy, owing to increased business in several lines, but the passenger trade is light.

National Aid For Roads.

In addition to a Governmental policy of inland waterways, a movement of almost equal volume has been started for Government aid in road building. This is through the agency of the League for Good Roads which hopes soon to get an appropriation from Congress for nearly a score of trunk lines to be constructed under the supervision of the Postal Department and to be under control of the Postoffice and Agricultural Departments. In hauling the farm products alone it is estimated that a big savings would be effected, as it always costs twice as much to haul products over poor roads. It would therefore be good public economy for the Government to spend a few million dollars each year in the construction of trunk line roads where they would do the most good.

When the people generally throughout the States and Nation realize the importance of improved and permanent roads and their maintenance, they will put this policy above all others. It has taken most of the State a long time to establish and maintain school systems, and many of them are far off yet from anything but the crudest of educational policies. Road making as a State and National policy is to the material uplift what the schools are to the moral and intellectual, yet the road making era stands today where the school system did a century ago. Materially this country is as badly handicapped for lack of good roads as is Russia, for instance, intellectually, by the lack of schools.

Millions of dollars are annually frittered away by both Congress and the Legislature which if diverted to the roads would aid more in the development of the State than any other policy that could be inaugurated. All that is to be done is for the people to insist. Public money that is being spent for naught might as well do some good.

No Private Gain.

Because the committee in charge of promoting the lectures and entertainment course here this fall and winter has adopted business principles in disposing of the tickets it has been subject to some criticism. Charges are made that it is a money making concern, and that individuals expect to profit by the venture.

This is not the case. The entertainment course is a purely public enterprise, and if a surplus remains it will be turned over for the promotion of a course next year. Unfortunately in the past a deficit instead of a surplus has usually been encountered, solely because promoters depended upon sentiment and public spirit to sell the tickets. This year they have employed a capable solicitor on a percentage to make a thorough canvass, exploit the merits of the entertainment, and to bring to public notice the benefits from patronage of the course. There is no private gain in it for any person.

Columbus Day.

Today marks the first observance of a new holiday in State annals—Columbus Day. The act creating this holiday was passed at the last session of the Legislature in honor of the discoverer of America, and it is being observed in various forms, particularly by our Italian-American citizens, to whose country the great navigator belonged, as well as the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic order founded on moral and ethical principles, such as actuates a benefactor of the race, like the great Columbus.

Pobably no single event marks a greater epoch since the coming of Christ than the discovery made by the famous Italian navigator. Like other great benefactors of his race his efforts were not appreciated at the time, and he suffered contumely and disgrace. Unjustly he was deprived of having his name inscribed on the scroll of perpetual fame, and the continent was named after a later discoverer. Although the creation of Columbus Day may be merely a matter of sentiment, it is a generous tribute to the memory of one of the greatest makers of epochs in world's history.

I will give you a Magic Cup--with beauty in it.

Do you believe in face cream? You know you do—the good kind. But why do even the best of them sometimes fail?

Because outward application alone cannot give you new skin, any more than your nail polish can give you new finger nails.

But this BEAUTY CUP of mine, used with CROWN CREAM, will give you a new skin. Yes, truly, I mean just that.

Listen, every tiny blood vessel should be a pulsating fountain of health and beauty for the skin that covers it. "Should be," I said. But if the delicate veins are clogged, and the countless pores are filled with impurities, the skin grows thick and the complexion muddy. Sores, blotches, blackheads and pimples are nature's own proof of the diseased conditions that come from neglect.

The HARLAN BEAUTY CUP gently massages the skin by its vacuum action, manipulating it so that not only the pores but its under portion is quickened and enriched with new life. The wonderful cleansing and beautifying effect of CROWN CREAM upon the surface is aided by this renewed activity of the blood vessels, so that impurities are dissolved and carried away, while new, fine and healthy tissue is formed, again proving that health is beauty.

Nothing else in all the world will get at the root of all the evils underlying lean, blotched and scrawny skin. The Harlan Beauty Cup, when used with Crown Cream will make a scrawny neck pretty, plump and fair, because it fills and freshens the skin cells, making the skin itself soft, smooth and velvety. It is the only true reviver, restorer and preserver for a dark and flabby skin.

You must try the BEAUTY CUP to know its worth. So for a limited time we shall give one free to every purchaser of the famous Crown Cream or Crown Complexion Powder.

CROWN CREAM consists of the most healing and nourishing ingredients for cellular tissues known to medical science. If you are unfortunate to have a rough, dry, oily, pimply, coarse, harsh, pallid, lifeless red complexion—if you suffer from sunburn, windburn, tan or other skin defects of face, neck, arms, bust or hands, Crown Cream, used as directed, will prove a delightful revelation to you. CROWN CREAM is unequalled as a skin food and tissue builder. We absolutely guarantee that it will not cause or promote the growth of hair, and that it will not cause any injurious effects. A single trial will convince you that it is without an equal.

CROWN COMPLEXION POWDER is absolutely free from anything that could injure the skin. The face powder that imparts that velvety softness and removes the disfiguring gloss and perspiration marks from the face. It adheres to the skin and imparts a delightful fragrance and softness without clogging the pores. Its antiseptic qualities preserve and clear the complexion.

Crown Complexion Powder comes in Fleesh, White, Pink and Brunette tints, while primarily intended for the face, its application is not limited and will be found well adapted to general toilet use.

CARPETS AND RUGS...

At this season of the year when the trees divest themselves of their leaves the busy housekeepers begin to make the dirt fly and rid their homes of the dust and dirt which only a thorough housecleaning can accomplish, and then on getting the old carpets and rugs up to clean, discover how really bad they are and awake to the realization that new carpets and rugs are necessary to put the home in as good shape as you desire to have it, for the long hours spent in doors during the winter months.

Then if you have ever been in our Carpet Department you will realize that you have right here at home a stock of carpets to select from which will make it an easy matter for you to supply your wants no matter how exacting they may be. "No need to go to the city for carpets" is what people say on looking over our very complete stock of carpets and rugs. Not only is our stock complete and embraces the output of the leading carpet makers of the country, but our prices are lower than the city stores quote you for the same class of goods. Our stock includes the following well known makes.

ROXBURY Ten Wire Brussels. The best tapestry carpet made. Made laid and lined free. Per yard.....$1.10	AXMINSTER Carpet, beautiful patterns, per yard.....$1.25 to $1.35 Made laid and lined free

ENTHUSIASM IS STATE WIDE

Philadelphia on East and Pittsburgh on West Join in Victorious Fight

WORKMEN HAIL PROTECTORS

Governor Stuart Tells Plain Truths Eloquent While U. S. Senators and Republican Candidates Put Issue Before Public.

With an enormous and enthusiastic rally in Pittsburgh Friday night the Republican state candidates have stimulated the time-honored fighting spirit of earnest Republicans throughout the entire state. From end to end throughout this great commonwealth Republicans have heard the call to register their approval of the stalwart and basic principle of Republicanism—"Prosperity vs. Poverty"—as reflected in that new safeguard to American working men—the tariff bill.

President Taft, in his tour of the nation with a view of impressing upon the people the salvation of American industry through the efforts of the Republican stalwarts on the firing line, recognized that the old Keystone state, the cradle of Republicanism and the industrial center of the world, was sufficiently sane and intelligent to register by ballot its endorsement at the coming election. Thus he has left this state confidently in the hands of the party.

Nor has the state been slow to respond. Marshalled in battle array under the powerful truths expressed by Governor Stuart, United States Senators Penrose and Oliver and the state candidates during the past few days, Republicans from state end to state end have seen the necessity of sustaining by an avalanche of votes the recent action of congress and the attitude of President Taft in assuring "Prosperity vs. Poverty."

No silver-tongued orator ever achieved such eloquent heights as was expressed in the thunderous cheers of approval that greeted Senator Penrose at the hands of 5,000 workmen from the greatest textile district in the country at Kensington last Thursday night. Under a blaze of fireworks the men who toil to earn their bread—with 5,000 unified voices—shouted hoarse their approval of "prosperity vs. poverty" and forever silenced the Democratic and demagogic doctrine that a protective policy was not a workingman's protection against underpaid foreign labor.

Governor Stuart, a man whose integrity stands as a national example and who, with no further political ambition, cannot be charged with selfish purpose, has silenced the malcontents of Philadelphia with his views on the necessity of a great state Republican victory this fall. The governor's speech in Philadelphia settled the campaign in that end of the state. One by one he paid high tribute to the qualifications of the candidates on the Republican state ticket and he urged all faithful Republicans to endorse Republican principles at the coming election by a record vote.

Pittsburgh and Allegheny county paid a tribute to the Republican state candidates on Friday night under most remarkable circumstances. Baseball mad—and on the very evening of the day upon which one of the greatest baseball battles of the age was begun—the Republicans of Allegheny county did not fail to realize the importance of gaining a more enduring victory—the supremacy of industrial prominence. A widely enthusiastic crowd gathered in Old City Hall and cheered Candidates J. A. Stober and Senator Sisson on to victory and roundly applauded ex-Representative Beidleman's plea for Judge von Moschizker, who, unlike his Democratic opponent, retains his judicial dignity by permitting his qualifications to come from others.

Senator George T. Oliver placed the issue squarely before his immense audience. In part he said:

"There is more in this election than the mere question of who shall occupy the offices. The country has just passed through the throes of a struggle in which the great majority of Republican senators and congressmen stood fast for the principle of protection to American industry and labor against the combined attacks of Democrats and a combination of men styling themselves as Republicans, but who abandoned the economic tenets of the party. Of all the great fundamental principles upon which the Republican party was founded, protection today is the sole survivor. All the others have from time to time been eliminated by Republican victories. I now say without hesitation that it is more important for this country and particularly Pennsylvania to maintain the policy of protection than it ever was before. The cost of living is becoming higher and American workmen must see to it that their wages are sufficiently protected to enable them to live in comfort and provide for those dependent upon them."

The Democrats of the state were never so discouraged as they are now and have not as yet opened their state campaign. On the other hand, State Chairman Andrews has been giving the Republican campaign intelligent attention and it is the boast of his associates that the party in the state was never better united and more harmonious than it is at present and

NOTICE is hereby given that stores which use the name of LOUIS BEIGEL will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. I do this for the reason that certain people have gained the impression that I am the proprietor of more than one shoe store. I hereby state that I am in no shape or manner connected with any other shoe store than the one located at 419 McKean Avenue, Charleroi, Pa. I make this statement so that the people will not be fooled into patronizing any of the so-called "sample" stores using my name, and afterwards find that they were not dealing with the old reliable firm which has for seventeen years been doing business in Charleroi. Unprincipled methods have been introduced by shoddy dealers of the city who send out to their hired agents in country towns cheap and unreliable goods. We hereby warn our patrons, as well as those of other reliable stores, to look out for stores that use our name and pretend that I am the owner of such stores.

ONLY ONE MORE WEEK OF THE EXPOSITION

Big Show at Pittsburg Will Close on October 23

Next week will be the last of the Exposition and on Saturday, October 23, the twenty-first annual season of the institution will come to a close and pass into history as an event that has contributed to the enjoyment and seekers from Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

The exhibits this season are varied, covering a particularly wide and diversified field. Those who went to the Exposition in search of knowledge did not go away disappointed. Everything pertaining to the latest treatment in mechanics and electricity were to be seen and among the latter was the marvelous wireless telegraph, the practical demonstrations of which are given daily. The Monitor and Merrimac, one of the most pretentious naval spectacles before the public, has been particularly attractive, as it is a reproduction of an historical event which practically revolutionized the navies of the world. People in educational circles as well as the public at large have found the famous archaeological display of Professor Henry Stahl a subject of absorbing interest and the relics taken from Blennerhassett Island together with other features will not soon be forgotten. These with the Norfolk and Western Railroad agricultural exhibit and the irrigation display will be seen here next week for the last time.

The brilliantly successful musical season will close with the United States Marine Band, which has been re-engaged. This notable organization, which is making such a pronounced hit this week, will appear in entirely new programs and Director William H. Santelmann promises novelties that cannot fail to please. "The President's Own Band" completely captivated the music lovers this week and there is no doubt but what the final concerts will give in the presence of overflowing houses. The grand and inspiring performances of this notable organization will afford a fitting climax to the Exposition's musical season which included the foremost bands and orchestras of the world.

The last days of the Exposition have always been a big event of the season, as thousands come to pay a farewell visit, and next week will be no exception to the rule. People living in the outlying districts will as usual take advantage of the railroad half fare excursions and the twenty-first annual season of Pennsylvania's only permanent industrial show promises to end in a blaze of glory.

ARTILLERYMEN.

They Were Once Regarded as Mechanics, Not Soldiers.

Until the time of Charles XII. of Sweden the artillery was not considered a part of the army. The men serving in it were not soldiers, but regarded as mechanics. The officers had no army rank. Charles XII. gave artillery officers a rank and regularly organized the artillery into companies. The battle of Pavia demonstrated the superiority of the gun in the hands of the Spanish infantry. The musket carried a two ounce ball and sometimes brought down at one fire two or three mailed knights. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons.

Alexander had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphrict, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armor; the acrobatic, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the Great reorganized his father's army. The file or inches of sixteen men was the unit; two files made a dioloch; two dioloches made a tetraorch; two tetraorches a tetarchy; two of these a syntagma; sixteen of these a small phalanx; four of these a tetra-phalangarchy, otherwise known as a large phalanx.

The Greeks attacked in a phalanx, the spears interlocked and shields overlapping. After the first onset the spears were dropped, and the day was decided with the sword. The cavalry attacked the enemy in the rear if possible and in case of victory undertook the pursuit.—Pearson's Weekly.

LAW WILL DOUBTLESS BE ENFORCED HEREAFTER

Distributing of Samples of Medicine Tabooed Through Act

When Advertising Matter is Thrown on Porches Youngsters Get It First

It is quite probable that the borough authorities will be called upon to enforce the act passed by the Legislature prohibiting the throwing of medicine or candy samples on porches and in yards. In addition to being a nuisance this practice has become so highly dangerous that the Legislature passed an act making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $100 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

On the residence streets of Charleroi many of the houses have no front yards and those who have young children usually fence them in on the porches and verandas during the pleasant weather. Along comes an advertising distributor and tosses on the porches promiscuously samples of liver pills, headache powders, packages of herb tea, cathartic candies and other nostrums, which the youngsters usually get first and with a fair chance for business for the doctors and undertakers. A recent case was the child of Wm. Gault, who was discovered eating some green stuff it had gotten from a sample package of medicine. Drastic measures relieved the child, and Mr. Gault filed a complaint with council, and it is likely the police will be notified to enforce the law prohibiting this dangerous practice.

The law in question prohibits "the depositing, casting, throwing or placing of packages, parcels or sample of medicine or candies in the houses, buildings, porches, verandas, or on the lawns, lands, streets or public highways within this Commonwealth." The penalties as stated are provided and the act was signed by the Governor May 8, 1907.

CONSTRUCTION WORK PROGRESSING WELL

New Kind of Chemical Plant Being Erected at Newell

Seven buildings are now under course of construction at Newell, now, and plans are being prepared for the eighth of the General Chemical company which is locating there. The work is progressing rapidly the Nicola Construction company of Pittsburgh having the contract.

The structures are being so arranged, that for the first time in the history of the chemical business, by starting the raw materials in one end of the group of structures the finished product will come out at the other. Every form of chemical will be made by the company. It is said that the company expects to erect other structures at Newell.

The five mile run will probably prove the most interesting. In it are entered some fast runners, among them being Frank Wiley California.

PARTY GOES FROM HERE

Rev. Boblitt Heads Delegation to Convention this Morning.

Headed by Rev. H. C. Boblitt, pastor of the First Christian church here, a big delegation of enthusiastic Sunday school, Bible class and church workers went to Pittsburgh this morning to attend the Centennial exercises of the Christian denomination which formally opened there last night. For the next ten days this convention will be the biggest and most important religious event in the country as well as in local circles, where it naturally assumes the largest dimensions.

More than fifty thousand ministers, educators and laymen are in attendance and every train that arrives in Pittsburgh is bringing more. Hotels and boarding houses are crowded, and the entertainment committee is taxed to its utmost efforts to provide entertainment. The evening sessions last night at which the visitors were formally welcomed, most enthusiastic, which indicated the spirit that will prevail at all the sessions.

Today a great meeting of the Brotherhood of the church began at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Luna Park. Addresses will be delivered and the Third Regiment Band of Kansas City will give a concert in the evening. The evening session will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

R. A. Long will preside at the afternoon session and addresses will be delivered by P. C. Macfarlane, general secretary; Arthur Holmes of the University of Pennsylvania, on "The Business Man's Duty to the Church"; Thomas W. Grafton, Anderson, Ind., "The Man in the Boy"; (Continued on Third Page).

OFFICER SENT TO CLEVELAND TO BRING HOME RUNAWAY DONORA BOY

Was Picked Up on Streets by Juvenile Court Officials and Held Until Father Was Notified

Officer George Ekarger, of Donora will bring home Willie Elliott, aged 13 years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Elliott of that place, from Cleveland, Ohio, this evening if he does not have some misfortune en route. The officer left yesterday for Cleveland, where the boy, who disappeared from home on Sunday a week ago, was being held.

The lad was found on the streets of

Cleveland, by officers of the Juvenile court, and despite his protests was taken to the boys' detention rooms. There he daily admitted that he was from Donora, and told his name. How he had got to Cleveland was a mystery, but he said that he came there to "have some fun."

The Elliott family moved from Cleveland to Donora about four weeks ago, the father having a responsible position in the Donora steel works.

MILKMEN WILL MEET COUNCIL

Come Under Instructions from Association that Will Prevent Action.

A committee consisting of Floyd Bonnell, William Spahr, N. W. Carson and Van Robinson of the Fallowfield Milkmen's Association will be at the meeting of council tonight, at the request of council to talk over the request of council to talk over the milk ordinance, recently passed by the borough. Council desires to enforce, but the committee will come with instructions from the association not to do anything beyond notify the council that they cannot comply, with present conditions with the terms of the ordinance.

OBSERVANCE OF FRUIT DAY HERE WEDNESDAY

Ladies' Auxiliary also Prepare to Receive Donations on Saturday.

"Fruit Day," being arranged by the Charleroi Ladies Auxiliary of the Monessen-Charleroi hospital, promises to fully reach the expectations of those in charge. The affair is a sort of donation for Wednesday of this week. Fruit and vegetables may be left at three places in Charleroi. The Charleroi City Grocery, J. E. Masters and the Charleroi Tea Store, at which places committees will be present to receive the material.

On Saturday a committee will be at the old Mirror office where any one may leave fruit or vegetables for the hospital.

ALIENS NOT AWARE THAT OCCUPATION TAXES ARE NOW LAWFULLY ASSESSED

When Notified to That Effect They are Much Surprised, and Many Do Not Pay Amounts Due

On or near September 11 of this year Tax Collector B. L. Parsons sent notices to 40 delinquent taxpayers to the effect that occupation taxes still unpaid for the year 1907 must be settled inside of 30 days or costs would be imposed according to law. A reading notice was also run in the Mail calling attention to the matter.

Since that time 130 persons have paid their amounts and most of them cheerfully while 20 or more have proven that they were not entitled to pay taxes for that year on account of non-residence or of being under age when assessed. Now the question is

ARE HIGH SCHOOL BOYS BOISTEROUS?

Some Citizens Living Near High School Building so Declare.

Complaints have been entered from the hill district in the vicinity of the High School building of alleged rudeness of high school boys going to and from school. It is alleged that the conduct of some of them is ungentelemanly and exceedingly boisterous. It was also said that they persistently crowd the younger children from the sidewalks, not altogether intentionally, but thoughtlessly. Some of the citizens of that neighborhood have remarked upon it, and have said that unless there is better order hereafter they will make formal complaints to the proper authorities.

The above complaint, it might be added, is similar to ones made nearly every year. At times it has been necessary to threaten suspension, and in extreme cases carry out these threats. The police are occasionally drawn into the affair.

CUTTING REFRAY MAY RESULT SERIOUSLY

One Man in Hospital and Another is Sent up for Trial.

As a result of a cutting affray Saturday from the result of which Richard Pender of Monessen is in the Monessen-Charleroi hospital, John Craig was this morning taken to jail at Greensburg, to await a hearing on the charge of felonious assault. A hearing was held last evening at Monessen, where the affair occurred and this morning Craig was identified by Pender as his assailant. It appears that for three weeks there has been bad blood between the two. Pender's most severe wound consists of a cut six inches in length, which was made at one knife thrust, it is alleged, by Craig.

PROPERTYHOLDERS GRANTED APPEAL FROM APPRAISMENT

Executive Committee Talks Over Matters

Meets at Washington Monday Afternoon to Discuss Political Situation.

Chairman T. G. Miller called a meeting of the Republican executive committee together at Washington yesterday in order to take note of the progress of the campaign. The headquarters were also formally opened in the evening and were visited by most of the county candidates and others prominent in the part, including Congressman J. K. Tener. Everything was found to be in good shape, and while a full vote may not be polled indications from every part of the county are that the Republican majority will be maintained.

MINISTERS APPOINTED

Methodist Conference Ends Yesterday and Changes are Made Known.

The Methodist Episcopal conference at Bellevue ended yesterday, with appointment of ministers for the coming year. Rev. A. M. Doak, the popular pastor of the Charleroi church, who has been here for two years, was returned. Other appointments in the district were as follows:

Monessen—C. E. Brenneman. Allenport—H. E. Lewis. Beallsville—O. B. Patterson. Bentleyville—J. S. Allison, Jr. California—G. H. Fliinn. Claysville—T. M. Dunkle. Coal Centre—W. J. Law. Donora—S. G. Brownsville—C. M. Kelly. Belle Vernon—J. D. W. Hazleton. J. C. Earnsworth was assigned to Allison Park; William Medley to McClelland Avenue, Pittsburgh, and H. J. Giles to Friendship Park. These three were former Charleroi pastors.

Birthday Party.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Connelly, last evening in honor of their daughter Miss Stella it being in the form of a birthday surprise. About 25 guests were present, and the evening was spent enjoyably with music and games. Several were present from Belle Vernon and Monessen.

Matter Presented in Open Court at Pittsburg on Last Saturday.

HEARING IN NOVEMBER

Decree Returned Within Short Time After Matter is Heard by Judge Orr.

The appeal from the amount assessed by the board of viewers in a commendation proceedings for the Charleroi public building site, has been allowed, and it is likely the hearing will come about the last of November. The appeal was presented by Attorney D. M. McCloskey on behalf of the owners of the property condemned on Fallowfield avenue and Seventh street, in open court to Judge Orr. It was heard and within a remarkable short time was granted, and a decree returned. The decree returned was:

"Now, October 9, 1909, the within appeal presented in open court and upon motion, the same is allowed and it is ordered that the pleadings be so framed that the said Florentine Malacord shall be the plaintiff and the United States of America the defendant, and the following issue of facts tried:

"1. Whether or not Florentine Malacord is the legal owner of the premises alleged or claims to be so owned.

"2. The quantity of said premises as measured by metes and bounds.

"3. The damages, if any, which the said Florentine Malacord has or shall suffer and sustain."

Robson.

Matthew Robson, 60 years old who has been making his home in Charleroi for sometime with his daughter, Mrs. Edward Elder, died at the Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh, on Friday evening of tuberculosis. The funeral was held Monday from Mr. Robson's home in Tarentum. Two daughters, Mrs. Elder and Mrs. Fern Loubets of Charleroi and the wife, two daughters and ones on in Tarentum survive.

NO ENCOURAGEMENT FOR BETTER STAGE

Rainfall too Slight to Cause a Sufficient Rise in Rivers.

Reports of the rain fall along the valley do not afford encouragement for any beneficial changes in the stages in the Monongahela and Ohio rivers. One inch of rainfall was reported from some stations, but the ground absorbed this amount and a very slight quantity of the water ran off into the streams. The storm which prevailed in this vicinity yesterday seemed to pass on eastward and again disappointed the anxious rivermen, who hoped for a better coal boating stage.

It was expected that the rain would continue at headwaters enough to maintain a fair stage in the Monongahela river but not materially increase the stage in the Ohio.

The freight trade along the rivers continues heavy, owing to increased business in several lines, but the passenger trade is light.

National Aid For Roads.

In addition to a Governmental policy of inland waterways, a movement of almost equal volume has been started for Government aid in road building. This is through the agency of the League for Good Roads which hopes soon to get an appropriation from Congress for nearly a score of trunk lines to be constructed under the supervision of the Postal Department and to be under control of the Postoffice and Agricultural Departments. In hauling the farm products alone it is estimated that a big savings would be effected, as it always costs twice as much to haul products over poor roads. It would therefore be good public economy for the Government to spend a few million dollars each year in the construction of trunk line roads where they would do the most good.

When the people generally throughout the States and Nation realize the importance of improved and permanent roads and their maintenance, they will put this policy above all others. It has taken most of the State a long time to establish and maintain school systems, and many of them are far off yet from anything but the crudest of educational policies.
Road making as a State and National policy is to the material uplift what the schools are to the moral and intellectual, yet the road making era stands today where the school system did a century ago. Materially this country is as badly handicapped for lack of good roads as is Russia, for instance, intellectually, by the lack of schools.

Millions of dollars are annually frittered away by both Congress and the Legislature which if diverted to the roads would aid more in the development of the State than any other policy that could be inaugurated. All that is to be done is for the people to insist. Public money is being spent for naught might as well do some good.

No Private Gain.

Because the committee in charge of promoting the lecture and entertainment course here this fall and winter has adopted business principles in disposing of the tickets it has been subject to some criticism. Charges are made that it is a money making concern, and that individuals expect to profit by the venture.

This is not the case. The entertainment course is a purely public enterprise, and if a surplus remains it will be turned over for the promotion of a course next year. Unfortunately in the past a deficit instead of a surplus has usually been encountered, solely because promoters depended upon sentiment and public spirit to sell the tickets. This year they have employed a capable solicitor on a percentage to make a thorough canvass, exploit the merits of the entertainments, and to bring to public notice the benefits from patronage of the course. There is no private gain in it for any person.

Columbus Day.

Today marks the first observance of a new holiday in State annals—Columbus Day. The act creating this holiday was passed at the last session of the Legislature in honor of the discoverer of America, and it is being observed in various forms, particularly by our Italian-American citizens, to whose country the great navigator belonged, as well as the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic order founded on moral and ethical principles, such as actuates a benefactor of the race, like the great Columbus.

Pobably no single event marks a greater epoch since the coming of Christ than the discovery made by the famous Italian navigator. Like other great benefactors of his race his efforts were not appreciated at the time, and he suffered contumely and disgrace. Unjustly he was deprived of having his name inscribed on the scroll of perpetual fame, and the continent was named after a later discoverer.
Although the creation of Columbus Day may be merely a matter of sentiment, it is a generous tribute to the memory of one of the greatest makers of epochs in world's history.

Monongahela is complimenting itself on the fact that there does not cost so much as it does in Charleroi and other places. When they get through with that light trouble it will be time to talk.

The greatest danger in aerial navigation, should it become general, would be the liability of careless navigators to drop a monkey wrench on our cocos.
Dr. Cook said "we moved but we took our landscape with us." Mon-essen couldn't do that. It hasn't any landscape.

To some people a telephone is a luxury, but to some girls that have a fellow in another town, it is an absolute necessity.

We observe that they are going to have a Matron's Day out at the Bentleyville schools, and a special program will be rendered. It may be stated however that there will not be any Marathon race.

I will give you a Magic Cup--with beauty in it.

Do you believe in face creams?
You know you do—the good kind. But why do even the best of them sometimes fail.

Because outward application alone cannot give you new skin, any more than your nail polish can give you new finger nails.

But this BEAUTY CUP of mine, used with CROWN CREAM, will give you a new skin. Yes, truly, I mean just that.

Listen, every tiny blood vessel should be a pulsating fountain of health and beauty for the skin that covers it.
"Should be," I said. But if the delicate veins are clogged, and the countless pores are filled with impurities, the skin grows thick and the complexion muddied. Sores, blotches, blackheads and pimples are nature's own proof of the diseased conditions that come from neglect.

The HARLAN BEAUTY CUP gently massages the skin by its vacuum action, manipulating it so that not only the pores but its under portion is quickened and enriched with new life. The wonderful cleansing and beautifying effect of CROWN CREAM upon the surface is aided by this renewed activity of the blood vessels, so that impurities are dissolved and carried away, while new, fine and healthy tissue is formed, again proving that health is beauty.

Nothing else in all the world will get at the root of all the evils underlying lean, blotched and sallow skin. The Harlan Beauty Cup, when used with Crown Cream will make a scrawny neck pretty, plump and fair, because it fills and freshens the skin cells, making the skin itself soft, smooth and velvety. It is the only true reviver, restorer and preserver for a dark and flabby skin.

You must try the BEAUTY CUP to know its worth. So for a limited time we shall give one free to every purchaser of the famous Crown Cream or Crown Complexion Powder

CROWN CREAM consists of the most healing and nourishing ingredients for cellular tissues known to medical science. If you are unfortunate to have a rough, dry, oily, pimply, coarse, harsh, pallid, lifeless red complexion—if you suffer from sunburn, windburn, tan or other skin defects of face, neck, arms, bust or hands. Crown Cream, used as directed, will prove a delightful revelation to you.
CROWN CREAM is unequalled
as a skin food and tissue builder.
We absolutely guarantee that it will not cause or promote the growth of hair, and that it will not cause any injurious effects. A single trial will convince you that it is without an equal.

CROWN COMPLEXION POW-DER is absolutely free from anything that could injure the skin.
The face powder that imparts the velvety softness and removes the visiting gloss and perspiration marks from the face. It adheres to the skin and imparts a delicious fragrance and softness without clogging the pores. Its antiseptic qualities preserve and clear the complexion.

Crown Complexion Powder comes in Flesh, White, Pink and Brunette tints, while primarily intended for the face, its application is not limited and will be found well adapted to general toilet use.

LOCAL NOTES

Brief Mention of People and Events in this Community.

Mrs. Joseph Lichter of Fallowfield avenue is spending the day in Pittsburgh.

The Charleroi banks were not closed today in observance of Columbus Day, the new legal holiday enacted by the last session of the Legislature.

A marked fall in temperature last night and this morning has brought out wraps and overcoats, which had been laid aside during the mild weather of the past week or two.

Frank Ingold is a Pittsburgh visitor today.

B. F. Barnett was in Pittsburgh yesterday to look after business interests.

Miss Gertrude Miner left today for Akron, Ohio, where she will visit relatives and friends.

Miss Helen Loomis has returned from Altoona, Ohio, where she spent a few days with friends.

Mrs. S. R. Collins is spending the day in Pittsburgh with friends.

Abe Oppenheim is transacting business today in Pittsburgh.

Frank Arrison was a visitor last evening in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. J. W. Carroll is a Pittsburgh caller today.

Mrs. M. M. McDermott was taken to the Allegheny General hospital today by her husband to undergo an operation.

Dr. John W. McNaughton spent last evening in Donora with friends.

John Michael has returned from Ohio, where he spent several weeks.

Miss Blanche Babbitt is in Washington preparing with Misses Ethel Blose and Ethel Covey and Karl Blose for the recital to be given at the Charleroi School Hall on Thursday evening of this week.

Mrs. Skiles Massay of Brownsville arrived in Charleroi this morning for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Flora Conaway.

Miss Ruth Rice, a teacher of the Crest avenue school, is confined to her home by illness. She is being substituted by the principal of the Crest avenue school, Miss Grace James.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Schwab and Mr. and Mrs. David Schwab of Findlay, Ohio, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Simon Wilson of Fallowfield, left this morning for Smithton, where they will visit briefly before returning home.

Edgar B. Walters of Morgantown, W. Va., who is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Walters, here suffering from purpura and rheumatism, is improving slowly.

Supper.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will give a supper in the church on October 23. Tickets will be for adults 35 cents, and for children 25 cents.

Beallsville.

Mrs. Clark Lancaster and daughter Marie, and Miss Ethel Richey, spent Sunday at Charleroi, as guests of Mrs. Lancaster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dawson.

The local chapter of the Epworth league observed Sunday as "Home Coming Day." Each chapter in this district had a rally in its own church and made an effort to interest all the young people of its vicinity.

There was special music, messages from absent members and friends, addresses by officers of the league and other extra features. The motto of this district "Forward on our Knees," is the watchword.

The Greensboro Gas company is laying a pipe line from the Lone Pine gas field to Beallsville where they will make connection with their main line.

Mrs. W. H. Weaver is home from a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Ella Carson, of Grand Junction, Col. Miss Florence Wagner of Charleroi has been a guest of her cousin, Miss Sarah Frederick, near Garwood for several days, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Winnett, Mrs. Emma Winnett of Seneca, O., Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sutherland, Garnet and Bertha Stroud of Coal Centre were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Winnett of near Beallsville.

Mrs. O. B. Patterson entertained her Sunday school class of the M. E. church in a very delightful manner Saturday evening.

W. F. Richardson, Kansas City, Mo., "The Man in the Church," Walter S. Goode, "The Church Man in the World," and brief remarks from prominent business men among the Disciples. The following program will be carried out in the evening:

Concert and song service, Third Regiment Band of Kansas City assisting; address, "Christian Education," Charles H. Watson, Boston, Mass.; address, "The Brotherhood and the Word Message," Stephen J. Corey, Cincinnati, Ohio; address, "The Aroused Manhood of the Church of Christ in America," Rev. Robert Johnston, D. D., pastor American Presbyterian church, Montreal, Canada.

ILLUSION ACT PROVES MYSTERY TO PEOPLE

The Great Creco company at the Star Theatre last night made a big hit as it was predicted. Their illusion act was puzzling in the extreme, as naturally entertaining. The illusion was the producing of a woman from a statue, Mr. Bolke, the head of the company apparently giving the woman powers not possessed by man.

Through a mixup in dates the Paris Green monologist did not appear, but in his place Dunlevy, an Italian impersonator came. He was the best in that line that has ever been seen here. The song and pictures were of the best.

A Needed Correction.

The executive committee of the Citizens' Lecture Course desires to make this statement:

The course is the result of the organization of about 40 citizens of Charleroi as a group of guarantors, for the financial success of the enterprise. Should a deficit occur these guarantors are called on to make up their prorata share of such deficit. For several years the sale of tickets has fallen below the actual cost of the various courses and last year each guarantor was called on to pay $4.50 each.

The course is not a private enterprise and should we be fortunate enough to have a balance left over it will be devoted to securing another course the next year. Patronage is solicited in a laudable undertaking, and you will yourself be benefitted by attending the lectures and entertainments.

J. W. Manon, Chairman.
Fred Clertue, Secretary.
Executive committee.

Daniel Campbell.

Daniel Campbell, 64 years old of Fallowfield township died at his home last night at 6 o'clock after an illness of several days of stomach trouble. The funeral will be held from the late resident on Wednesday afternoon. Interment will be in the old Waller cemetery, near Lover. The deceased is survived by three sons and three daughters, all living at home. Mr. Campbell was a well known resident of Fallowfield township and his many friends mourn his demise.

A schoolmaster who is in the habit of selecting extracts from his morning newspaper for dictation exercise read the other day a passage in which occurred the term "dead beat." "Jones," said he, addressing an inattentive pupil, "what do you mean by 'dead beat'?" "Please, sir," the youngster replied. "It's the heat of the place bed people go to when they're dead."—London Schoolmaster.

CARPETS AND RUGS...

At this season of the year when the trees divest themselves of their leaves the busy housekeepers begin to make the dirt fly and rid their homes of the dust and dirt which only a thorough housecleaning can accomplish, and then on getting into the carpet and rug department they find how really bad they are and awake to the realization that new carpets and rugs are necessary to put the home in as good shape as you desire to have it, for the long hours spent in doors during the winter months.

Then if you have ever been in our Carpet Department you will realize that you have right here at home a stock of carpets to select from which will make it an easy matter for you to supply your wants no matter how exacting they may be. "No need to go to the city for carpets" is what people say on looking over our very complete stock of carpets and rugs. Not only is our stock complete and embraces the output of the leading carpet makers of the country, but our prices are lower than the city stores quote you for the same class of goods. Our stock includes the following well known makes.

ROXBURY Ten Wire Brussels. The best tapestry carpet made. Made laid and lined free. Per yard.....$1.10	AXMINSTER Carpets, beautiful patterns, per yard.....$1.25 to $1.35 Made laid and lined free

ENTHUSIASM IS STATE WIDE

Philadelphia on East and Pittsburgh on West Join in Victorious Fight

WORKMEN HAIL PROTECTORS

Governor Stuart Tells Plain Truths Eloquently While U. S. Senators and Republican Candidates Put Issue Before Public.

With an enormous and enthusiastic rally in Pittsburgh Friday night the Republican state candidates have stimulated the time-honored fighting spirit of earnest Republicans throughout the entire state. From end to end throughout this great commonwealth Republicans have heard the call to register their approval of the stalwart and basic principle of Republicanism—"Prosperity vs. Poverty"—as reflected in that new safeguard to American working men—the tariff bill.

President Taft, in his tour of the nation with a view of impressing upon the people the salvation of American industry through the efforts of the Republican stalwarts on the firing line, recognized that the old Keystone state, the cradle of Republicanism and the industrial center of the world, was sufficiently sane and intelligent to register by ballot its endorsement at the coming election. Thus he has left this state confidently in the hands of the party.

Nor has the state been slow to respond. Marshallled in battle array under the powerful truths expressed by Governor Stuart, United States Senators Penrose and Oliver and the state candidates during the past few days, Republicans from state end to state end have seen the necessity of sustaining by an avalanche of votes the recent action of congress and the attitude of President Taft in assuring "Prosperity vs. Poverty."

No silver-tongued orator ever achieved such eloquent heights as was expressed in the thunderous cheers of approval that greeted Senator Penrose at the hands of 5,000 workmen from the greatest textile district in the country at Kensington last Thursday night. Under a blaze of fireworks the men who toil to earn their bread—with 5,000 unified voices—shouted hoarse their approval of "prosperity vs. poverty" and forever silenced the Democratic and demagogic doctrine that a protective policy was not a workman's protection against underpaid foreign labor.

Governor Stuart, a man whose integrity stands as a national example and who, with no further political ambition, cannot be charged with selfish purpose, has silenced the malcontents of Philadelphia with his views on the necessity of a great state Republican victory this fall. The governor's speech in Philadelphia settled the campaign in that end of the state. One by one he paid high tribute to the qualifications of the candidates on the Republican state ticket and he urged all faithful Republicans to endorse Republican principles at the coming election by a record vote.

Pittsburgh and Allegheny county paid a tribute to the Republican state candidates on Friday night under most remarkable circumstances. Baseball mad—and on the very evening of the day upon which one of the greatest baseball battles of the age was begun—the Republicans of Allegheny county did not fail to realize the importance of gaining a more enduring victory—the supremacy of industrial prominence. A widely enthusiastic crowd gathered in Old City Hall and cheered Candidates J. A. Stober and Senator Sisson on to victory and roundly applauded ex-Representative Beidleman's plea for Judge von Moschizker, who, unlike his Democratic opponent, retains his judicial dignity by permitting his qualifications to come from others.

Senator George T. Oliver placed the issue squarely before his immense audience. In part he said:

"There is more in this election than the mere question of who shall occupy the offices. The country has just passed through the throes of a struggle in which the great majority of Republican senators and congressmen stood fast for the principle of protection to American industry and labor against the combined attacks of Democrats and a combination of men styling themselves as Republicans, but who abandoned the economic tenets of the party. Of all the great fundamental principles upon which the Republican party was founded, protection today is the sole survivor. All the others have from time to time been eliminated by Republican victories. I now say without hesitation that it is more important for this country, and particularly Pennsylvania to maintain the policy of protection than it ever was before. The cost of living is becoming higher and American workmen must see to it that their wages are sufficiently protected to enable them to live in comfort and provide for those dependent upon them."

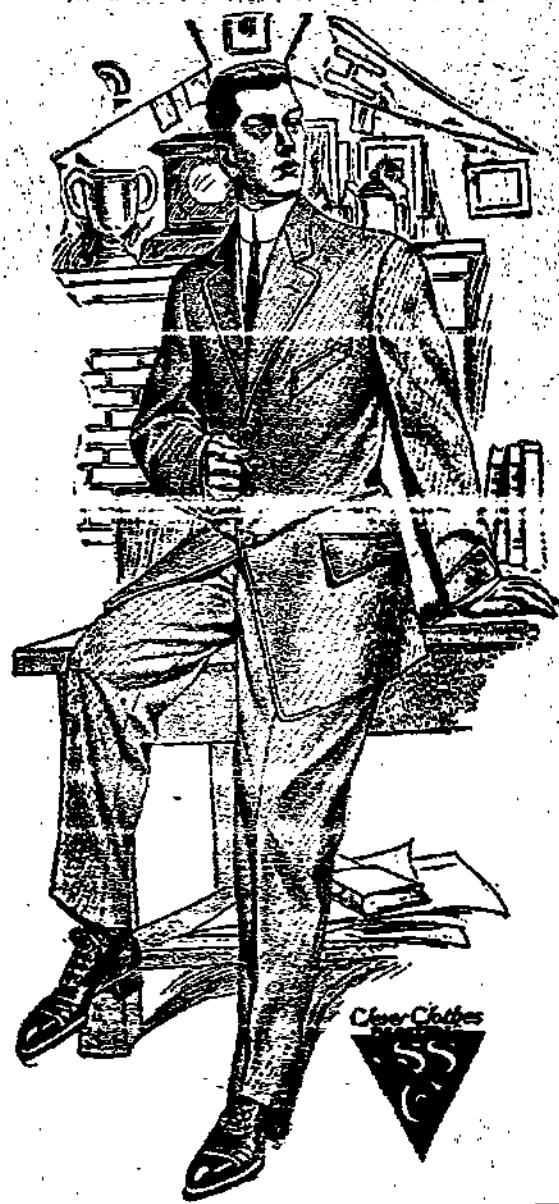

The Democrats of the state were never so discouraged as they are now and have not as yet opened their state campaign. On the other hand, State Chairman Andrews has been giving the Republican campaign intelligent attention and it is the boast of his associates that the party in the state was never better suited and more harmonious than it is at present and

Notice to the Public

NOTICE is hereby given that stores which use the name of LOUIS BEIGEL will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. I do this for the reason that certain people have gained the impression that I am the proprietor of more than one shoe store. I hereby state that I am in no shape or manner connected with any other shoe store than the one located at 419 McKean Avenue, Charleroi, Pa. I make this statement so that the people will not be fooled into patronizing any of the so-called "sample" stores using my name, and afterwards find that they were not dealing with the old reliable firm which has for seventeen years been doing business in Charleroi. Unprincipled methods have been introduced by shoddy dealers of the city who send out to their hired agents in country towns cheap and unreliable goods. We hereby warn our patrons, as well as those of other reliable stores, to look out for stores that use our name and pretend that I am the owner of such stores.

ONLY ONE MORE WEEK OF THE EXPOSITION

Big Show at Pittsburg Will Close on October 23

Next week will be the last of the Exposition and on Saturday, October 23, the twenty-first annual season of the institution will come to a close and pass into history as an event that has contributed to the enjoyment and pleasure of thousands of amusement seekers from Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

The exhibits this season are varied, covering a particularly wide and diversified field. Those who went to the Exposition in search of knowledge did not go away disappointed. Everything pertaining to the latest creation in mechanics and electricity were to be seen and among the latter was the marvelous wireless telegraph, the practical demonstrations of which are given daily. The Monitor and Merrimac, one of the most pretentious naval spectacles before the public, has been particularly attractive, as it is a reproduction of an historical event which practically revolutionized the navies of the world. People in educational circles as well as the public at large have found the famous archaeological display of Professor Henry Stahl a subject of absorbing interest and the relics taken from Blennerhassett Island together with other features will not soon be forgotten. These with the Norfolk and Western Railroad agricultural exhibit and the irrigation display will be seen here next week for the last time.

The brilliantly successful musical season will close with the United States Marine Band, which has been re-engaged. This notable organization, which is making such a pronounced hit this week, will appear in the grand and inspiring performances of this notable organization will at ford a fitting climax to the Exposition's musical season which included the foremost bands and orchestras of the world.

The last days of the Exposition have always been a big event of the season, as thousands come to pay a farewell visit, and next week will be no exception to the rule. People living in the outlying districts will as usual take advantage of the railroad half fare excursions and the twenty-first annual season of Pennsylvania's only permanent industrial show promises to end in a blaze of glory.

ARTILLERYMEN.

They Were Once Regarded as Mechanics, Not Soldiers.

Until the time of Charles XII. of Sweden the artillery was not considered a part of the army. The men serving in it were not soldiers, but regarded as mechanics. The officers had no army rank. Charles XII. gave artillery officers a rank and regularly organized the artillery into companies. The battle of Poltava demonstrated the superiority of the gun in the hands of the Spanish Infantry. The musket carried a two ounce ball and sometimes brought down at one fire two or three mailed knights. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons.

Alexander had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphract, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armor; the acrobatic, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the Great reorganized his father's army. The file or lachos of sixteen men was the unit; two files made a diloch; two diloches made a tetrach; two tetrarchies a tetiarch; two of these a syntagma; sixteen of these a small phalanx; four of these a tetra-phalangarchy, otherwise known as a large phalanx.

The Greeks attacked in a phalanx, the spears interlocked and shields overlapping. After the first onset the spears were dropped, and the day was decided with the sword. The cavalry attacked the enemy in the rear if possible and in case of victory undertook the pursuit.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Mistress—Katie, you should not

The Maid—No, ma'am.

"No. You should understand that it is your place to listen."

"I do that, ma'am."

"I never saw you when you were then."

"No, ma'am, you never saw me when I was listening because I was on the other side of the keyhole, ma'am."
